* Note for All Hands at Staff Mtg.

24 December 1963

Dear Art:

Perchance your office is sated with receiving the many thank you notes from this office for the extraordinary service which the COMOR enjoys in regard to reproduction and distribution of our documentation. However, the season of the year and the almost daily reminder of the quality and faithfulness of this service requires that I mention once again how much we depend on your people and how critical their service is in the conduct of COMOR business with frequently short notice either from the Board or from COMOR members themselves.

Accordingly, may I request that you pass on to the relevant officers on your staff for their excellent service the gratitude of COMOR. Even though this were provided grudgingly, which it never is, it would still be most appreciated. I would like to wish you and them the best of this season and of the coming year.

50X1
